

Literacy NRV

Volunteer Information Session

ABOUT US

- 45: our age (established by local libraries)
- 13: members of our volunteer board
- 6: staff members (4 part-time)
- 150: awesome volunteers
- 300+: NRV adults served each year
- Countless: lives impacted in NRV

United Way of Southwest Virginia

ProLiteracy®

- One-to-one and small group tutoring
- Drop-in job search, computers and writing assistance
- Family, health, and financial literacy programs
- Community-based services
- and more!

Volunteering
With
Literacy NRV

Family READS

Helping parents learn skills to read with children and help children succeed in school

- Dinner is provided and we eat together as a group
- Children are taken to a separate area to do crafts, read books, etc.
- Parents are put in groups with volunteers and go over skills to help their children with school work
- We end by everyone playing a game together

English for Life

Leveled English classes for beginning level students to advanced intermediate students. The class focuses on reading, writing, speaking and listening to English.

- Curriculum-based class focusing on vocabulary and grammar
- Students learn in groups based on their assessed levels and work together to practice reading, writing and improving conversation skills based on that topic.

1-to-1 Tutoring

Work with adult learners one-to-one to help with improving their skills:

- English listening, speaking, writing, and reading
- Basic computer skills
- GED preparation

Our expectations:

- Dress appropriately
 - Formal attire isn't necessary, but we ask that you do not dress revealing
- Appropriate language
- Be on time
- Communicate with LNRV staff/instructors

Your Next Steps

- Visit literacynrv.org/vtcc to fill out your volunteer application and indicate which opportunities you are interested in.
- A Literacy NRV staff member will contact you to confirm your volunteer placement.
- You may receive an additional training video. Please review this before attending the first class.
- Spots will be filled on a first come, first served basis.
- Please be sure to note class locations so that you can address any transportation needs.